NEW GOVERNORS.

Montana and Wyoming Attended to Yesterday, B. F. White and F. E. Warren the Nominees.

A Number of Other Nominations Sent in, Among Them Those of Two Montana Postmasters.

Wholesale Removal of Division Superin tendents in the Rallway Mail Service -The Charges Against Wolfley.

The New Governor Nominated. WASHINGTON, March 26 .- The president ent the following nominations to the sen' ate to-day: Francis E. Warren, of Wyoming, to be governor of Wyoming territory; Benjamin F. White, of Dillon, to be govrnor of Montana territory; Lee Moorhouse, of Oregon, to be agent of the Indians at the Umatilia agency, Oregon; Robert V. Belt, of Maryland, to be assistant commissioner of Indian affairs.

Postmasters: George Budd, Bozeman, Mont; James M. Moore, Anaconda, Mont; John D. Hague, Tacoma.

These Were Confirmed. WASHINGTON, March 26 .- The senate in Walrong, to be United States attorney; marshal; James M. Shackleford, to be marshai; James M. Shackleford, to be judge of the United States court; all for Indian territory. James Tanner, to be commissioner of pensions; Jeremiah Sullivan, to be collector of customs for Montana and Washington; Seligman Bros., to be special fiscal agents of the navy department at London; Charles M. Bradshaw, to be collector at Puget Sound, Washington territory.

The Ax in the Railway Mail Service. WASHINGTON, March 26 .- The postmas r-general to-day, acting upon the recomtion of General Superintendent Bell, of the railway mail service, appointed the railway mail service: W. H. Bigelow, first division, Boston, Mass., vice George E. Dame, resigned; R. C. Jackson, second division, New York City, vice W. F. Doolittle, resigned; C. W. Vickery, third division, Washington, D. C., vice Eugene Carrington, resigned; L. M. Terrill, fourth division, Atlanta, Ga., vice J. M. Turner, resigned; George W. Pepper, ninth division, Cleveland, Ohio, vice F. B. Dodge, resigned. With the single exception of Pepper, the appointees named above were displaced during the last administration, Bigelow in 1885, Jackson in 1888, Vickery in 1888, and Terrill in 1886. Pepper is a clerk in charge of the New York and Chicago railway postoffice.

General Superintendent Bell, in speaking of these changes, said that they were made solely in the interest of good service. The men who are to-day reinstated have been for many years closely identified with the railway mail service, and its efficiency is largely due to their ability and energy.

Other Territorial Governors pecial says: The charges filed against Gov. Wolfley, of Arizona, in the senate are mation gained in confidential relations; fraudulent surveys, and a technical charge relating to materials used by Wolfley in surveys in the territory. The first charge, made at the instigation of Colin & Brewster, of Cameron, Ariz., who own large tracts of land in the territory, is considered the most serious. They employed Wolfley for six weeks in surveying and clearing up titles. He charged them $1,500, of which $500 was for expenses. The matter was compromised for $100, after Wolfley had offered to submit the matter to arbitration. The general impression is his nomination will be confirmed at an early date, as the territorial committee does not seem to consider a case being made out against him.

to consider a case being made out against him.

A. L. Morrison, formerly of Chicago, is said to be a candidate for governor of New Mexico. He is the man who, at a meeting of Irishmen in New York, started a movement during the last campaign for the adoption of the American flag as the republican emblem as an offset to the democratic bandana. Morrison's friends say he has lived long enough in the territory to make him a native, therefore he is within the home-rule requirements which the president is following in territorial appointments. Gen. Harrison is inclined to do something in recognition of Morrison's services in the campaign. There is, however, opposition in New Mexico. The moderator of the general assembly came all the way to Washington to protest against Morrison's appointment. He intended to see Gen. Harrison, but after talking with Secretary Halford went away satisfied. He presented protests from various religious bodies in the territory.

Foreign Money Order Busine WASHINGTON, March 26 .- Pursuant to gress approved Jan 30, 1889, the postoffice department is now conducting negotiations with various foreign governments with which the exchange of money orders is maintained, with a view of receiving their consent to a reciprocal increase of the maximum amount. To-day the postmaster-general and the Hawaiian minister, A. P. Carter, signed a convention establishing a new limit of $100 for orders between the United States and the Hawaiian Islands. During the year ended June 30, 1888, the amount of money orders issued in the United States for payment in Hawaii was $4,508. On the other hand, the amount of orders drawn in Hawaii for payment in the United States was $25,684. with various foreign governments with

In April, 1882, he was transferred to the interior department, and appointed chief of the Indian division in the office of the secretary, which position he has since held. A Good Day's Work. WASHINGTON, March 26.—The senate was in executive session an hour and quarter to-day, and in that time disposed of all the nominations reported from commit tees, leaving only two on the calendar aside from those sent in this afternoon. The files of the executive calendar were also pretty generally cleared of pending conventions and treaties. Most of these were unimportant documents relating to postal conventions and copyright agreements, which were approved pro forma. The arrangements with Mexico relative to the appointment of a boundary commission was continued. The extradition treaty with Russia was the subject of the most discussion. It was championed by Sherman and opposed by Evaris, Eustis and George, the latter proposing amendments, which went over until to-morrow, when it is expected the treaty will be approved practically in its present form. aside from those sent in this afternoon

WASHINGTON, March 26 .- The commis loner of the general land office to-day recommended to the secretary of the interior that suit be instituted in the name of the United States to recover about 200,000 acres of lands situated between the Raccoon fork of the Des Moines river and known as the Des Moines river lands. Under the authority of the land department a large number of settlers between the years 1855 and 1860 made entry of these lands, but of which the Des Moines Valley railroad company, acting under authority of the state courts, has been for some time actively engaged in dispossessing them. The bill having for its object the restoration of these lands passed the forty-ninth and fiftieth congresses, but it did not receive the approval of the president. It is said that the Iowa delegation in congress is unanimously in favor of the course recommended by the commissioner. acres of lands situated between the Rac-

No Change Likely in the Land Offices. WASHINGTON, March 26.—[Special to the independent.]—There is likely to be no change in the Montana land offices for some time to come. Most of the terms do not expire until next year and there is not likely to be any removals except for cause. Delegate Carter leaves to-morrow with Russell Harrison for Philadelphia to "see the town," as he says. Burial of Stanley Matthews.

CINCINNATI, March 26 .- The burial of stanley Matthews, late associate justice of he supreme court of the United States, was a simple and beautiful ceremony. The remains arrived this morning and were taken to Spring Grove cemetery where a taken to Spring Grove cemetery where a very large assembly had gathered. The burial service of the Episcopal church was used, the rector being Rev. Dr. Pise, of Glendale. Besides members of the family, the justices of the supreme court and others from Washington. there were present Gov. Foraker, Lieut. Gov. Lyon, members of the Ohio senate at d house of representatives, Henry Watterson, of Louisville, Murat Haistead, ex-President Hayes and a committee of the Ohio Commandery of the Loyal Legion. Flowers from the president and Mrs. Harrison were left on the grave.

BALTIMORE, March 26 .- Sister Bene being erected here, to-day received a check for $150, forwarded by Emperor William tion. It is understood the gift is the result of a report made by the acting imperial German Consul Heydenrich to the foreign office at Berlin at the request of the latter to name some institution in Baltimore where a donation from Emperor William would be acceptable. The money will be used to furnish a room in the new building when completed, which will be named in honor of the donor.

Fayette County, Pa, Terrorized by Highwaymen, the Authorities Being Powerless.

Terrible Fight in a Church at Stewartstown, Four Youths Being the Principals.

The Leaders of the Kentucky Feud Eithe Killed or Captured and the Trouble Believed to be Over.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 26 .- Robbing ppears to becoming epidemic in Fayette ounty. Lewis Hunter was in Uniontown Saturday and late at night started for his ome at White Rock, when three men sprang out of the bushes, grasped his horse and demanded his money. Hunter dug his knees into his horse and the spirited animal sprang off. The highwayman shot after him but did no harm, owing to the darkness. It is evident others are profiting by the terror inspired by the Mc-Clellandtown band and under cover of their fame are operating, hoping the blame may attach to other outlaws.

Last Sunday Allen and Alonzo Sister and George and Floss Deitrich, all nearing manhood, attended the Baptist Sunday school at Stewartstown. Soon bad blood showed itself and the congregation were astonished to see the youths of each family brandishing revolvers at each other and starting in to fight. A scene of wild confusion rose, women and children screamed and the few men present could not quell the disturbance. They soon had the church to themselves and in the desperate fight that ensued the Deitrich family were badly used up. George Sister was beaten on the head with a revolver and his brother being severely hurt. Assistance arriiving the gang was put to flight, the Sister boys fleeing to Uniontown, and are now thought to be secreted at one of the numerous cake works in that region. Blood bespattered the walls of the church, showing the desperate nature of the contest. Great excitement prevails in the neighborhood over the outbreak and the end of the trouble has not been seen.

About two years ago a feud arose between Dolph Sister and John Deitrich, a well-to-do farmer living near Stewartstown, in West Virginia, over the trespasses of Sister's hogs. Fire was added to the feud not long ago by Sister's preferring a charge of illegal liquor selling against Deitrich, who owns a distillery, but which fatled to be established, and Deitrich was acquitted.

LOUISVILLE, March 26.-A special from Pineville, Ky., to the Courier-Journal says: me being, between the warring Turner been killed for at least thirty-six bours, and the interest in the feud is flagging. At present Gen. Souder is in jail at Swineford, under indictment for the assasination of Jack Turner two years ago, and even should he be released there are other charges which will doubtless be strong enough to hold him; in fact, several murders in which he has been implicated one way or another have still to be carried into court. The killing of James Burch, another leader of the Souder crowd, has distinguished them, and so far as that faction is concerned the war is at an end, unless the Turners start it up again. Alvin Turner's death at the hands of Burch deprived the followers of that young Hotspur of the chief source of revenue, and the people of Bill county seem at present to think that as soon as the supply of ammunition in the hands of the Turners has been burned, the end will have been reached. Jeff King, who alone survived the last affray, has been a fugitive from his former friends and foes alike, evidence having been produced to the effect that he robbed the dead body of his fallen leader as well as that of Burch. He was captured this afternoon on the northern slope of Pine mountain, seven miles southeast of Pineville, by Deputy Sheriff Moss and Marshal Thompson, of Pineville, assisted by John and Mark Turner, sons of Ben Turner. They brought him to Pineville and iodged him in jail. Harvey Turner is still in jail at Tazwell, and as far as the leaders are concerned the Turners seem to be as badly off as the Souders.

Burch's body was removed to Yellow creek to day for burial, but young Turner is still at the house of his aun', Mrs. Catherine Parker, whose first husband, Mr. King, and her son, Will King, were killed by Jack Turner, the father of Alvin, fifteen years ago. The remainder of the Turners have temporarily subsided, but it is reported a number of them still in the neighborbood are bearing arms and are ready to resist any attempt that may be made to arrest them.

During the forenoon Harvey purchased a revolver, but what use he was to make of the weapon was not dreamed of till this aftern when for some reason the chief of pol visited Harvey's residence. The chief found the house locked, but by raising a window at the back of the house he made his way inside. All was as slient as the grave. He passed through the kitchen and dining and sitting rooms, looked into the parior and then went up-stairs, where the first object he saw was Harvey's fair haired daughter of 12 or 13 years, lying on the floor of the front bedroom with her head in a pool of blood. A bloody hole in her head told the means by which she had met her death. The chief raised the dead child's bead from its cramped position and laid it on a pillow. He then passed through the upper hall and in a back bed room found Harvey's oldest daughter lying beside the bed, also dead. Horrified, the chief went downstairs and in the clothes-room of the kitchen he found Mrs. Harvey, stretched at full length, with a similar bullet wound. A further search through the house revealed nothing more and no trace was found of the author of the dreadful triple murder. Harvey went to the central school at 11 o'clock this morning and took his youngest daughter home. He was seen driving to wards Schaw Station and it was thought he authorities there were notified.
